

Kia ora and welcome

It's my great pleasure to welcome you to Ara - a community of students and all my colleagues from more than 50 countries around the world.

We're very proud of our diversity at Ara. Everyone who studies or works here brings ideas, perspectives and experiences that enhance and enrich a learning journey that we are all part of. So I encourage you to share your thoughts, knowledge, skills and story while you are here.

I'd also like to encourage you to get to know the people you meet - both at Ara and in the communities you will be part of - and to join in with local life. The person you sit next to in class on your first day could become a life-long friend, and the connections you make with other students, tutors, industry representatives and New Zealanders during your time here could open doors to all sorts of exciting opportunities.

The information within this brochure is provided to help you settle in and find your feet. If you need any further assistance, please get in touch with our student support team - they're always available and keen to help.

I wish you all the very best for your studies and for your time in New Zealand.

Nāku, me ngā manaakitanga

Tony Gray Chief Executive

Living in Canterbury, New Zealand

Canterbury is a vibrant and dynamic region. The largest city in Canterbury is Christchurch, which is home to just over 400,000 people. Christchurch's vitality is reflected throughout Canterbury in smaller centres such as Timaru, Ashburton and Kaikoura, which are thriving on the back of tourism and primary industries.

When you come to Canterbury to study at Ara, your opportunities to explore and experience this beautiful region are endless. You are never far from beaches, rivers, lakes, mountains and bush, and there are all sorts of ways you can enjoy these places; from kayaking, skiing and hiking to mountain biking, rock climbing and swimming with dolphins. To find out more about Christchurch and Canterbury, we recommend these websites:

Weather

Canterbury has a mild climate. Summer (December to February) is usually warm and dry. Winter (June to August) is cooler; at night the temperature can fall below zero degrees Celsius but the days are often sunny. Autumn and spring have mild days but the nights are cool.

The weather in Canterbury can vary a lot, even in one day and the wind can be cold. Be prepared for these changes – even in summer – by having some warm clothes.

Central heating is uncommon in New Zealand homes. Most homes have either a heat pump (air conditioning) or a log fire, but in some homes you'll need to provide your own heating appliance.

Seasons

Spring September to November Summer December to February

Autumn March to May Winter June to August

These figures for temperature, sunshine and rain are a guide to normal conditions:

February (summer)

Daytime average temperature	23.9°0
Nighttime average temperature	8.2°C
Sunshine (hours per month)	188.6
Rain (days per month)	5.1

August (winter)

Daytime average temperature	14.4°C
Nighttime average temperature	0.2°C
Sunshine (hours per month)	147.9
Rain (days per month)	8.2

Sun safety

New Zealand sunlight can have high levels of ultraviolet (UV) radiation, which can cause skin and eye damage. Wear a good quality sunblock and sunglasses when you are outside. For further information visit:

sunsmart.org.nz

Water safety

Sadly, drownings are common in New Zealand. We encourage you to follow the water safety code whenever you venture near the water. It is a great way to plan a safe aquatic adventure.

The water safety code has four simple rules:

- Be prepared
- · Watch out for yourself and others
- Be aware of the dangers
- Know your limits

New Zealand (kiwi) slang

Important New Zealand laws

Alcohol

You must be at least 18 years old to buy alcohol in licensed premises. When purchasing alcohol, you may be asked for photo identification (e.g. passport, 18+ card). It is illegal to provide alcohol to anyone under the age of 18.

police.govt.nz/advice/drugs-and-alcohol/ alcohol-laws-and-penalties

Drugs

It is an offence to use, possess, cultivate, traffic or drive under the influence of illegal drugs in New Zealand.

police.govt.nz/advice/drugs-and-alcohol/drugs-and-alcohol-getting-help

Cigarettes

You must be at least 18 years old to buy cigarettes in New Zealand. It is illegal to buy them for anyone under this age. Smoking is illegal inside buildings (offices, shops, restaurants etc) or on public transport (planes, trains, buses, ferries, taxis etc.). Many homestays and rental properties also don't allow smoking indoors. Smoking is not permitted anywhere on Ara campuses, including outdoors.

Gambling

It is illegal in New Zealand to gamble or enter a casino if you are under the age of 20.

Driving in New Zealand

If you wish to drive while you are in New Zealand, it is important that you understand the New Zealand road rules and typical road conditions that you are likely to experience. We recommend visiting the following websites:

nzta.govt.nz/safety/driving-safely/visiting-drivers/

aa.co.nz/travel/rental-vehicles-and-transport/ visitors-to-new-zealand/visiting-drivertraining-programme

aa.co.nz/drivers/learn-to-drive-the-aa-way/road-code-quiz

Some things to remember:

- In New Zealand, we drive on the left hand side of the road
- · Everyone in the vehicle must wear a seatbelt
- · It is illegal to use a phone while driving
- You are required to obey the speed limit and if you are issued a parking ticket or speeding ticket, you must pay the fine within the time stated. Unpaid fines are registered with the New Zealand authorities and will prevent you from leaving New Zealand until the fine is paid in full
- Make sure you are eligible to drive on our roads: you must have a current and valid overseas driver licence or international permit; if you are here for more than 12 months, you will need to gain a New Zealand driver licence
- It is easy to underestimate travelling times
- Our roads are narrower, more winding and sometimes steeper than you might expect
- Most of our roads are two-way, with one lane in each direction; there are few motorways
- Not all railway crossings have active warnings

Your personal safety

Be careful with your valuables (cameras, mobiles, wallets, laptops etc). Unfortunately not everyone is honest so do not leave valuables unattended as they may be stolen. Check that you have locked all doors and windows when you leave home. Keep all valuable items out of site. Make sure doors and windows are locked when you are at home in the evening especially before going to bed to sleep.

When you are out and about in the city try to make sure you are with a group of friends, especially at night. If you are in a homestay tell your host family where you are going and what you are doing. Leave a contact phone number in case your host needs to contact you. If you are not going to be home for the evening meal advise your host earlier in the day. If you are living in a flat make sure that you let your flatmates know if you are going away for the night or longer.

In the case of an emergency situation you can dial 111 and request Police, Ambulance or Fire Service - Please take note of your location so that the service can find you easily.

If the situation is not an emergency, for example you have had your wallet stolen and you need to contact the police, then you can call 105. The number is available from both mobile and landline phones. It's a free nationwide service available day and night for New Zealanders and overseas visitors. Some private, corporate or government agencies have their own private telephone systems that may not have been changed to allow the number 105 to be dialled. If you experience this, please call 0800 105 105. You can also report anything in person at your local Police station. For more information visit:

police.govt.nz/advice/personal-community/ keeping-safe/visitors-safety-guide

Getting around in Christchurch

Christchurch has an extensive public transport service. The Metro network provides bus transport from most suburbs to the city, all shopping centres and most attractions around Christchurch.

The Central Station is located in the city at 46-50 Lichfield Street, close to Ballantynes. There you will find a fully-staffed Metro info kiosk, undercover waiting rooms, amenities and screens that show you how many minutes until your bus arrives.

metroinfo.co.nz

Taxis are recommended if you are travelling home after dark. Taxis may be called by telephone, by waiting at a taxi stand or by waving one down.

If you are using a bicycle please use the bicycle lane provided on the road and NOT the footpath. By law you are required to wear a cycle helmet when riding your bike; if caught without one you may be fined. Bicycles must have lights that can be used at night. It is a good idea to wear a high visibility vest. You MUST lock your bicycle at all times when you are leaving it. Ara provides two secure areas to park your bike while you are studying. There is lock up secure parking for your bike below E Block and the other below S Block as shown on the campus map. To access these areas please go to the Security Office in the Atrium and ask for lock up access to be loaded on your Ara student ID card.

There is limited student parking at Ara. To use any of the student car parks on the city campus you must display a current year parking authority sticker in the front window of your vehicle. You can collect this from Security or Student Cental in the Rakaia Centre on presentation of your fees receipt or Ara ID Card. You will also need to use the pay and display machines located in each of the car parks – put the fee receipt on the dashboard of your vehicle where it can be clearly seen. Illegal parking results in vehicles being towed and impounded and only released upon payment of a fine (approx. $90).

Getting around Timaru

It is easy to walk or bike but you must wear a bike helmet when cycling. The bus service is Monday to Friday from 7am to 5.45pm and Saturday about 10am - 4.30pm. The timetable and map of bus routes can be found on:

metroinfo.co.nz/Timaru/timetables

This is also included in your Arrival Pack.
Metrocards can be bought from Te Ana Ngai
Tahu Rock Art Centre / Information Centre, 2
George Street (across from the Railway Station),
Monday - Friday 10am - 4pm and Saturday/
Sunday 10am - 3pm

In April 2020, the bus service for Timaru will be changing. Please see below link for more information

Timaru Taxis - phone 03 688 88 99

In Timaru, there is free parking in Arthur Street across the road from the campus or on the street

Travelling from Christchurch to Timaru

If you are studying at our Timaru campus, you may need to organise transport from Christchurch. The one-way trip takes approximately two hours and you can travel by car, shuttle (minivan) or bus.

Travel and medical insurance

As an Ara student, you are required to have comprehensive travel and medical insurance. This is a legal requirement under the NZQA for the Pastoral Care of International Students. Our insurance provider is Allianz StudentSafe, which has specifically tailored its StudentSafe policy to meet the needs of our students.

Your insurance must cover your path of study. Your student ID number is also your policy number. You can claim for doctor appointments and prescribed medicine, but not for dental appointments (unless it is an emergency, for example, an accident).

If you have to make an insurance claim, you can pick up a claims form from Student Support. To make a claim for lost or stolen personal belongings, you will need to provide proof of purchase, so keep all of your receipts and any doctor's reports. If you have anything stolen, you must report it to the police within 24 hours. If you do not take care to prevent theft or loss of items, the insurance company will not approve payment. Please note: if you buy a car in New Zealand, you will need to get car insurance.

Please come and see a Student Advisor at Student Support to pick up a claims form and get assistance if required.

For more information on your insurance:

Pastoral Care Code of Practice

Ara is a signatory to the Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice 2016, administered by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority. We are committed to the quality and care of international students. The Code makes sure that educational providers ensure:

- · High professional standards are maintained
- International students are recruited in an ethical and responsible way
- Information supplied to international students is clear, accurate and up-to-date
- Students are provided with information before taking on any commitments
- Contractual dealings with international students are done in an ethical and responsible way
- The particular needs of international students are recognised
- International students under the age of 18 are in safe accommodation
- All providers have fair and equitable internal procedures for the resolution of international student grievances

All schools and institutions that wish to have international students studying their programmes must comply with the Code. The Code information is available here.

Setting up a bank account

New Zealand banks offer excellent online banking services and most also have local branches. Many banks offer special rates for students. Select a bank that suits your needs and then visit a branch to open an account.

You will need to take the following:

- Proof of identification (e.g. passport)
- Proof of address (student accommodation letter, proof of study document with New Zealand address)
- Proof of study (letter from Ara)
- Valid study visa

Completing your enrolment

Ara has an experienced team of staff to assist you to complete your enrolment. Ara requires international students to submit the following documents at International Admissions & Enrolments located in the Atrium in Christchurch. In Timaru, you can take your documents to Student Central.

- Passport and Visa
- Original academic transcripts
- · Evidence of English Language

You will not be enrolled at Ara until you have provided these documents and paid all fees. Once enrolled you can get your personalised Ara student ID card.

Terms & conditions of enrolment

Please make sure that you understand all of the things you need to do before you start your study.

Full details are available at:

ara.ac.nz/terms-and-conditions

Getting your Ara ID card

Your Ara ID card is your formal identification at Ara. It is also your library card, and can be used for photocopying, printing, security access and to get student discounts. It also provides after-hours access to computer suites, bike lock-ups etc. We recommend you keep your ID card on you at all times, as access to some buildings may be denied if you do not have Ara identification.

To obtain your card, present your Student ID number from your enrolment receipt at:

Christchurch Security office,

Rakaia Centre, City campus

Timaru A Block (ground floor, next to reception)

Your photo will be taken, and your card will be produced while you wait.

International orientation

The International Orientation is an event all international students are required to attend. It is usually held on a Thursday and Friday afternoon, the week before your programme of study starts. You can find the time and date of your orientation in the enrolment information emailed to you, or you can enquire at Student Support.

Programme orientation

Your programme orientation is usually held the week before your study begins (the date and time is included in your enrolment information). Please note that you must attend your programme orientation as well as the International orientation.

Purchase your textbooks

Your enrolment information booklet will include a list of the textbooks you need for your programme of study.

Timetables

You can view your timetable (and check for clashes) on the student portal (access this through your MyAra app). To access the student portal, refer to the section in this handbook called 'Using a Computer at Ara'.

Tips for successful study

- Attend all of your classes
- Plan effectively and work at your learning
- · Get to know and work with your classmates
- Ask questions and seek clarification from your tutors
- Ask for and use feedback from your tutors to improve your work
- Do what you can to maintain your wellbeing (check out the 5 Ways to Wellbeing at mentalhealth.org.nz/home/ways-towellbeing)

Attendance

As an international student, you are required to attend 100% of your courses unless you are sick or you experience an unforeseen situation. Please notify your tutor of your absence, before your scheduled class. If you are sick for three days or more, you need to provide a medical certificate. Non-attendance can lead to the cancellation of your student visa.

Student rights and responsibilities

Ara is concerned about the welfare and achievement of all students. To create and maintain the best possible teaching and learning environment, you are protected by basic rights and you are expected to respect the rights and responsibilities of others. We are committed to "delivering what we promise to a recognised standard". To view your rights and responsibilities, visit:

MyAra/student information/enrolment and rights/student rights and responsibilities

Using Ara computers and ICT resources

There are many computers at Ara that students can use. Email, intranet and the internet is free, but your use is monitored and you are expected to use these resources responsibly.

Code of Conduct for ICT users

Ara has a Code of Conduct that provides guidance on the proper and allowed use of Ara's ICT resources. To understand our regulations and your responsibilities, you can find the Code of Conduct at ara.ac.nz/_data/assets/pdf_file/0008/133559/ CPP105a-Ara-Code-of-Conduct-for-ICT-Users-Handout18.pdf

Logging in

Once you are enrolled, you will be given a login username and password so you can login to any computer on campus. Login for the first time using the password provided, then select Ctrl+Alt+Del to create your own password. If you have any problems, contact the ICT Service Desk – phone 03 940 8800 or visit the helpdesk in the library.

For after-hours access to computer labs, swipe your ID card at the door (your card can be encoded by Security).

Accessing Wi-Fi

Wi-Fi is free for all students. Please choose ARA-WIFI on your device and enter your network login username and password when prompted. If you have problems contact ICT or the Library staff.

MyAra

MyAra brings all your everyday student tools together and puts them right at your fingertips. It gives you instant access to Moodle, the student portal, your student email and calendar, library and learning resources, student services, your to-do list and much more, Download it from Google Play or Apple's App Store.

MyAra.ara.ac.nz

Student portal

The Ara Student Portal is the place where you will find all your student related information including your enrolments, timetable, attendance and academic results. You can also update your phone number, email address and emergency contact details.

Moodle

Many teaching staff at Ara use a software application called Moodle to set up an online course page where they can share information and interact with students enrolled in their courses.

Staff will use Moodle in a variety of ways - they may use it to upload resources you need for lessons, to distribute assignments to you, or to send you course related messages. They may set up online quizzes so you can test your understanding of the material you are learning or they may use discussion forums to answer student questions or to give you additional information about topics or upcoming events. In some courses you may be required to submit your assignments via Moodle into an electronic drop box and your marks may even be returned to you via Moodle.

ELinz

ELinz stands for Effective Learning in New Zealand: Study skills for International Students

This is a very useful resource if you are new to New Zealand.

Logging in to Elinz:

- 1 Login to MyAra
- 2 Go to Moodle
- 3 Select the icon for ELinz

Facebook

You can find the latest notices, news and information on Ara's Facebook page.

Printing services

To print from an Ara printer or to use an Ara photocopier, you first need to add money to your ID card. At the City campus, you can top up your card at the kiosks in the Atrium or the library. At the Timaru campus, you can top up at the kiosk outside the library.

You can also add funds online by going to: printfunds.ara.ac.nz/ and use your network username and password.

Emergency procedures

We have taken every measure to provide a safe environment for you, but it is still important to be aware of your surroundings and know what to do in an emergency.

Every room has an emergency procedure notice showing you what to do in the event of a fire, earthquake or ringing alarms (like the one shown).

If you need help during an evacuation, tell your teachers. The computer suites, workshops, studios, and laboratories have specific Health and Safety requirements. Your teachers will tell you about these before you start practical work in these rooms.

Emergency phone numbers

Police, fire, or ambulance Dial 111 from your cell phone (you can use this even if you do not have any money on your phone.

What to do in an emergency

During an emergency, alarm bells will sound throughout the building.

- 1 Everyone must immediately leave the building using the most direct safe route. If you normally use the lifts to reach the ground floor and need help during an evacuation for accessibility/disability reasons, you should wait beside the lift and help will be given as part of our standard evacuation plan. You can talk to department staff in advance of any drill or evacuation to understand what this means for you.
- 2 Go to the designated assembly point.
- 3 Staff and any wardens must ensure that all visitors are moved to a safe area and then on to the assembly point.
- 4 You must check in with a warden at the assembly point before leaving the site or returning to a building.

Lifts Keep out of the lifts. Use the stairs to exit the building.

Technical equipment

If it is safe to do so switch off all non-essential equipment to reduce potential electrical hazards.

Lights Turn on, or leave on, all building lights. It improves visibility for anyone who has to enter the building after it has been evacuated.

Smoke stop

Close smoke stop doors behind you as you leave.

Accommodation

Homestay

Finding accommodation can be a difficult process and you need to find the type of accommodation that is right for you. If you are visiting New Zealand for the first time, we recommend that you apply for homestay accommodation. If you are an international student, under 18 years old and not living with your parents, you must stay with one of our homestay families.

Homestay accommodation allows you to concentrate on your studies while also joining in with a family lifestyle if you wish. It is a great way to practise English and to experience the Kiwi way of life. You have your own room and meals are provided.

Wireless broadband is included (up to 25 GB per month, you will need to pay your host for additional data used) and local calls are free but toll calls should be made using an international calling card.

For more information about our homestay service, talk to International Admissions or visit:

ara.ac.nz/service-and-support/ accommodation/homestavs New Zealand Education Advisor Servicesprovides the following homestay services:

- Full inspection of each home and interviews with host families
- · Police vetting of all host families
- Airport pick-up when you arrive and transfer to your homestay family
- · A full 'welcome pack' when you arrive
- Greeting you on your first day at Ara
- Banking assistance on your first day at Ara
- Language translators
- 24-hour contact number to be used in the case of an emergency
- Follow-up meetings with you to ensure you are happy in your homestay

Flatting

Many Ara students live in shared accommodation – called 'flats' - while studying. If you intend to go 'flatting' you will need some independent living skills, such as cooking, cleaning and budgeting. If you can, get to know the people that you intend to go flatting with before you move in together.

There are many flats to rent, but a good one may be hard to find, especially at the beginning of the academic year. Finding a flat is easiest once you have arrived; we recommend that you book temporary accommodation (hotel, motel, youth hostel, backpackers) so you have somewhere to stay when you arrive.

Average flatting costs - per person, per week (based on three people sharing a flat):

Rent $120-$150 Electricity $30 Food $80-$100 If you are considering flatting, we suggest you look at the following websites:

Ōtautahi House

Otautahi House is a modern apartment complex opposite Ara's City campus in Christchurch. It has 36 apartments accommodating 192 students. As a resident at Ōtautahi House, you will enjoy the friendship of fellow residents from a range of backgrounds, places and programmes of study. You will share experiences together, like flatting for the first time and exploring a new city. You and your flatmates have the flexibility to organise your own shopping and cooking rosters. Some cleaning services are provided and pastoral care from designated Ara staff is always available.

International fee (2020)

48 weeks at $205 per week	$9840
Bond	$820
Activities fee	$177.50
Administration fee	$230
Bedding pack (optional)	$140

^{*}Halal diets may cost an extra $20 per week.

Working in New Zealand

As an international student studying in New Zealand, you may be granted work rights. To confirm this, check your eVisa or visa label in your passport.

Work rights allow most international students to work up to 20 hours per week and full time during scheduled holidays (subject to visa conditions). If you are found working more than your approved hours, you may be deported. Your employer may ask you to provide a letter confirming the scheduled holiday dates. Your international student advisor will provide this for you upon request (please allow 2-3 days).

naumainz.studyinnewzealand.govt.nz/

Employee rights

All workers in New Zealand have rights as employees. For more information on minimum wages and rights, go to:

employment.govt.nz/er/minimumrights

IRD number

If you are permitted to work in New Zealand while studying, you will need an IRD number. This is an eight or nine-digit number unique to you. It is important because all your tax, entitlement and personal details are linked to this number. If you don't have an IRD number, your employer will deduct income tax at the highest 'non-declaration' tax rate of 45%.

Student Visa

As an international student at Ara, you are required to have a current student visa for the length of your programme of study. You must ensure that your visa is valid for the whole time you are studying in New Zealand.

The conditions of a student visa are that you attend classes at all times, make satisfactory progress, complete all course requirements and pass your courses. Your academic progress is reviewed when you apply or renew your student visa. You may be required to apply directly to Immigration New Zealand:

- if you are transferring from a different education provider
- if your academic progress and/or attendance are unsatisfactory

Post-Study Work Visa

Once you have graduated with a New Zealand qualification, and received your official Transcript and Completion of Study letter from Ara, you may be eligible to apply for a Post-Study Work Visa.

A Post-study work visa lasts for 1,2 or 3 years depending on the level of your qualification. For more information, visit:

https://www.immigration.govt.nz/newzealand-visas/options/study/working-duringafter-your-study/staying-to-work-after-study

Please note: that you must apply directly to Immigration New Zealand for a Post-Study Work Visa. If you have any questions, talk to an International Student Advisor.

Finding your way around

Ara is a big place so it is a good idea to carry a map of your campus until you get your bearings.

How to find a specific room

Ara rooms are labelled with a letter, followed by numbers (e.g. N406). The letter represents the block that the room is located in. So N406 is in N Block. The first number is the floor the room is on. Therefore, N406 is on the fourth floor. The last number or numbers are the room number. Above the door of the room, you will see the room's full number (e.g. N406).
